Freedom Week Is Slated for Next Week at H.S.

Next week, November 7-11 will be the annual Freedom Week at the Wasatch High School. This week is set aside to instill in those who attend a greater appreciation of the freedoms and privileges we enjoy in this land of America.

An assembly will be presented in the Civic Auditorium each day throughout the week, and flag raising ceremonies will be held at the high school on Monday and Friday mornings.

The flag raising ceremonies will be at 8:30 a. m. both days and the assembly schedule is as follows:

Monday - 10:30 a. m. - Speaker - Major General Maurice L Watts, the Adjutant General of the State of Utah. A special number by the high school Boys Chorus will close this assembly.

Tuesday - 10:30 a. m. - speaker, Mr. Edwin L. Peterson from the University of Utah who recently addressed a Rotary meeting in our community, and possibly a companion, Mr. Bus Williams.

Wednesday - 1:00 p. m. - Speaker - Major George S Knowlden - Utah National Gd.

Thursday - 1:48 p. m. - movie "The Eeternal Sea".

Friday - 1:00 p. m. - Studentbody Veteran's Day Assembly.

The public is cordially invited to attend as many of these assemblies as is possible. We meetings, outings and genealogical sessions were conducted, concluded on Sunday, July 27 with sessions of the stake quarterly conference.

Another significant celebration came in 1947 when throughout the state the Church observed the 100th anniversary of the arrival of the Mormon Pioneers. Wasatch Stake held a valley-wide celebration from July 15 through 19 and in addition hosted the Black Hawk Encampment.

The county fair was also planned for that time. A parade, featuring Miss ReNee Thacker as Wasatch County Queen was held. Attendants to the queen were Miss NaDene Sweat and Miss Eileen Dearden.

When the regular Wasatch County Fair was begun in 1925, Lyman Rich was appointed chairman and served until 1929. Other chairmen during the years have included J. M. Ritchie, 1930-38; H. Clay Cummings, 1939; J. A. Anderson, 1940; R. C. Draper, 1941 and 1943; John A. Anderson, 1947; Louis J. Adams, 1948-49; W. J. Bond, 1950; Myron C. Gale, 1951-52; Arvel McAffee, 1953 to 1960 and J. W. Jordan, 1960-. No fairs were held in 1942 or from 1944 to 1947 because of wartime conditions.

An outstanding fair and celebration was held in 1959 when Wasatch County celebrated its centennial. Former residents came from all parts of the country to enjoy the many entertainments and reunions. Several queens and their attendants were honored, including Minnie L. Crook, Clyde and Eliza Rasband as her counselors. Emma Fortie was the secretary. They served until 1929 when Nellie C. DeGraff became president. Her counselors included Emma G. Carlile, Lacy Swain, Mary Thomas, Mary Sander and Isabel Baum. Mrs. DeGraff served nearly 20 years until 1947 when Violet Olpin was sustained as president with Marion Clegg and Ruth Mae Witt as counselors and Florence Nelson and Leah Horrocks as secretaries.

In 1953 Ruth Mae Witt became president with Mina Giles and Dulcie Young as counselors and Thelma Hair, secretary. Then in 1956 Mina Giles became the ninth president of the Stake Relief Society. Thelma Wootton, LaVon Burch, Yvonne Miller and Lavada Harrison have been her counselors, with Rachel Jaicoletti, DeEsta Jordan and Birdie Rasband as secretaries. Sister Giles, along with Sisters Wootton, Harrison and Rasband constitute the present presidency.

Through the years, the sisters of Wasatch Stake Relief Society have stored wheat, assisted in Red Cross work, financed maternity and child welfare plans, established a nurses training course, offered temple and burial clothes to members of the Church, assisted in county fairs, sponsored home canning projects of fruit and vegetables, planted trees on the Stake House grounds, participated in Church Welfare programs, sponsored fashion shows, organized choruses of Singing Mothers, conducted social events, purchased hospital beds, studied the Gospel as well as the history of the United States, purchased paintings of Church leaders to hang in buildings and assisted officers of the Priesthood in funeral services and events of the wards and stake.

The work of the Church might go on without the Relief Society, but it certainly would be much more difficult without them.

WASATCH STAKE SUNDAY SCHOOL

Sunday School meetings in Wasatch County were first held in the homes of members of the Church. As wards were organized they included Sunday School classes. Then when the Wasatch Stake was organized in July of 1877 a stake Sunday School unit was established.

Samuel J. Wing served as the first superintendent in the stake, with James H. Moulton as first assistant and William McMillan as second assistant. They continued until Jan. 23, 1893 when Joseph H. Lambert became superintendent.

During his superintendency the first stake board was organized. Known as the Stake Sunday School Aides, the board consisted of Henry L. McMullin, Joseph A. Rasband, John W. Crook, William H. Bond, Frederick Crook, John W. Winterrose and John Bond, who was secretary. They were called on June 18, 1899, and held the first Stake Sunday School Union Meeting in the Central School at Heber on March 2, 1902.

On Feb. 10, 1901, Richard Bridge and David A. Broadbent were

Auxiliary leadership in the ward has been as follows:

RELIEF SOCIETY: Fay Hilton, president, with Mabel R. Smith and Luella Fitzgerald, counselors and Helen Hiatt, secretary; De Esta Jordan, president, with Lona Durrant and Coleen Magleby as counselors and Helen Hiatt, secretary.

PRIMARY: Toma Waldbieser, president, with Billie Dove Hiatt and Lois Duke Wright, counselors and Elaine Call, secretary; Ellen Duke, president, Lois Wright, Phyllis Parcell and Cleo Hiatt, counselors and Beverly Ercanbrack, secretary; Barbara M. MIA: Harris Parcell, superintendent, with Doyle Smith and William C. Davis, assistants, and Kent Hiatt, secretary. J. Lucas Hiatt became superintendent, followed by Bill Davis and then Wayne McDonald with Douglas Smith and DeVerl Cutler as assistants. Betty North was YWMIA president, with Millie Gurr and Shirley Lee as counselors, and later Shirley Lee and Joyce Daniels as counselors and Nettie Rasband, secretary. Then Shirley Lee became president with Phyllis Parcell and Toma Waldbieser as counselors.

Presidents of the Chamber have included Mr. Anderson, 1952-53; Jess R. Walker, 1953-54; Byron Cheever, 1954-55; Harold Stevens, 1955-56; John A. Anderson, 1956-57; J. W. Jordan, 1957-58; Guy McDonald, 1958-59; Gordon Mendenhall, 1959-60 and Harold H. Smith, 1960-61 and 1961-62.

Typical of the projects sponsored by Wasatch Merchants was the Dog Sled Derby held in February, 1960. The success of the first Derby prompted the planning of another for February, 1961, but no cooperation from the weather resulted in no snow and a postponement. However, plans are going forward to make the Derby an annual event, depending on the snowfall.

The program for the February, 1960 celebration carried a list of sponsoring Wasatch merchants, and indicated the stature and diversity of business firms in the valley. Included in the list of firms were the following:

Al's Service, Aloma Motel, Anderson Implement & Hardware, Anderson's Saw Mill, Ashton Lumber & Hardware Co., Ashton Oil & Transportation Co., Alpine Club & Bronson Fuel Co., Avon Theatre, Barker's Jewelry, Beautiful Heber Valley Motel, Bill's Service, Bob's Texaco Service, Broadhead Sinclair Truck Stop, Center Farm Service, Central Utah Insurance Co., Chick's Cafe, Christensen's Store, Cluff & Huffaker, Clyde's Billiards, Cochran Garage, Coleman's Store, Crown Lunch, Dairy Queen, Eggleston Insurance Agency, El Rancho Heber Motel, Farmer's Insurance Group, Fay's Chevron Service, First Security Bank, Forsey's Variety Store, Fortie Dairy, Great Lake Timber Company, Grill Cafe, Hardy's Shop, Heber Cafe, Heber City Exchange, Heber Motor Company, Heber Hospital, Heber Valley Floral, Hicken Feed and Produce, Hilton Motel & Hilton 66 Service, Hi-Way Hotel-Motel, Homestead, Hub Cafe & Auto Court, Hylton Auto Supply, Ideal Theatre, Ivan's 76 Service, Iver's Mercantile, Jack's Glass Shop, Johnson Garage, Jordanelle & Sportsmen's Club.

Vera Anderson, Lydia Hausey, Ethel Murdock, Leda Greer, Florence Nielson, Lois Fox and Amber Turner. Other presidents of the club have included Rae Wright, 1959 and Clarissa Murdock, 1960.

The group has had a number of projects and flower shows. Most notable have been the memorial garden at the cemetery, landscaping the library grounds, the Avon building and the Memorial Building.

The aim of the group, to make Heber a more beautiful place, has been the goal of all civic and cultural activities through a hundred years of growth. A more beautiful atmosphere existed because of dramatic or musical entertainments, and through helpful projects the civic clubs have greatly enhanced the appearance of the community. The garden clubs, other groups and all the residents of Heber and the valley have worked together to insure that the area would always be to those who viewed it a spot most beautiful upon the mountains.

KNIFE AND FORK CLUB

A unique two-county club was begun in 1951 as a joint project between Wasatch and Summit counties with the organization of the Wasatch-Summit Knife and Fork Club. Spearheading the [illegible] for the club was Lowe Ashton, Sr., of Heber, who became the club's first president when it received its charter on November 17, 1951. Serving as officers with Mr. Ashton in the first club were Francis C. Tatge of Midway, first vice president; Robert McCullough, Park City, second vice president and Gordon Mendenhall, Heber, secretary.

Main purpose of the club was to give married couples of the two counties the opportunity of meeting at a social function once a month during the winter season. Those attending would eat a banquet meal and then be entertained or enlightened on important world trends and events. During the years the club has done much to promote a friendly relation between the two sister counties.

Those who have been presidents of the club include Lowe Ashton, Dr. Karl O. Nielson, Gordon Mendenhall, Clyde Broadbent, Sam Wilde and J. W. Jordan.

HEBER VALLEY JUNIOR CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

The Heber Valley Junior Chamber of Commerce was chartered in the county in 1953 with Morris Felt as the first president. The charter affiliated with the Utah Junior Chamber of Commerce, the United States Junior Chamber of Commerce and the Junior Chamber International.

Purpose of the organization is civic service through the organized efforts of the young men of Heber valley, to promote the welfare of the community and its citizens through active, constructive projects. It is also a purpose of the organization to provide the young men of its mem-
